You are at the centre

Your success is our passion. Your strengths and needs are where our collaboration together starts. We offer flexible programs and courses to meet your needs and support that put your desires at the centre of what we do.

We help you to reach your goal

We help you develop the skills and the connections you will need to complete your course successfully. If you run into difficulties, you will find us by your side, working together with you to get you through.

Learn in a town near you

You find our campus's in Wangaratta and Seymour. We also collaborate with community centers, local organisations, agencies and employers across the Hume to deliver courses near you.

We create opportunities

We are driven to create a vibrant future for people and communities in the North East. Together, we find options for personal development, sport, volunteering, training, work and business.
